by them within a reasonable time, at reasonable prices, and the proceeds appropriated as follows:—One third to the State making the sale, for a perpetual common school fund; and one third to be divided among the States and Territories, and one third to the American Colonization Society, to remove free people of color, who are desirous to emigrate to Liberia.

MR. MILLARD, (dem.) of Va., had thought the bill before the committee a jest—one of those extravagant propositions which are sometimes brought before Congress—and gentlemen are now making a serious and a profitable business of it. He really is earnest in desiring its passage.

MR. JOHNSON, (dem.) of Tenn.—I understand the gentleman to say that this was a practical jest.

Mr. MILLER said he meant no discourtesy and would support the bill on constitutional grounds. The committee was ready to vote.

Mr. MILLER said he had been asked to present a memorial from a citizen of the First Congressional District, presenting a memorial asking for the passage of the Homestead bill. The house then adjourned.

UNANIMOUSLY FOR CASS. DETROIT, April 28, 1862.

The Michigan Democratic State Convention organized at 11 o'clock this morning 133 members were present. Immediately after the organization, the Hon. B. H. Caldwell offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That the roll of delegates be called by the Secretary; and that each member of the convention, on his name being called, announce his preference for the democratic candidate for the Presidency.

The members announced Lewis Cass as their choice without a dissenting voice.

The Baltimore Whig Ward Elections.
BALTIMORE, April 23, 1852.
The following is the result of the whig ward election held to night, for the convention to choose delegates to the National Convention:—The first fifteen wards, comprising the Fourth Congressional district, elected 58 delegates to Baltimore for Fremont and Scott, and for Scott, the five upper wards, forming part of the Third Congressional district, chose 20 for Fillmore and five for Scott. The fifteenth ward held no meeting, but will elect Fillmore delegates.

The Anti-Slavery Convention.
CINCINNATI, April 23, 1862.
The Anti-slavery Convention assembled yesterday morning in Smith and Nixon's Hall; it is composed of a large number of well known anti-slavery men from New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and other States. The members seem principally of that class who insist on making the Evangelical religion the basis of all their efforts. Neither of the extreme political sections are prominently represented.

The Convention was called to order by Dr. Brisbane. The Hon. J. S. Foster of Kentucky was chosen President, Dr. H. W. Wilson and Dr. W. L. Chapin, of Indiana, Secretaries, Dr. C. Burleigh of Conn., of the Council, and Everett, of Pa., Vice President. A committee on resolutions was appointed and some resolutions were presented and discussed till the adjournment came on Monday.

This morning, a resolution reading last evening, was taken up and after a lengthy discussion, was amended, so as to read, that "for the evils of slavery a large portion of the American Church and Clergy is responsible."

Dr. Brisbane, from the Committee on Resolutions, reported a series of twenty-one on African-slavery, and a series of twenty-one on the Convention.

Catholic School Bill in Maryland, &c.
BALTIMORE, April 28, 1852.
Considerable feeling has been excited in this city, by the Catholic School bill, introduced into the Legislature, by Mr. Kearney. A committee of the City Council this mornoon reported a resolution, strongly protesting against the passage of the bill.
The Southern mail, as late as due, is received, but the papers contain no news of interest.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

Steamship State of Georgia. PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1862.
 The new Steamship State of Georgia, Captain S. S. May, has just arrived at this city, having been on her maiden voyage from Philadelphia to New York.

Markets. ALBANY, April 23, 1892.
Flour is dull. Wheat, 6,000 bushels sold to-day at 98 cents for Mediterranean, and 109 for Genesee on the spot, and 110c for Genesee to arrive. Corn is dull; sales 100 bushels, in lots, at 61½ a 62½. 3,000 bushels tested barley, changed hands, on private terms. Oats sold at 41½¢ from store. A boat, with a full cargo has arrived from Rochester.

Domestic Miscellany.
BURNING OF THE STEAMER POCALONTAS ON THE ARKANSAS RIVER—Twelve Lives Lost.—On the night of the 11th inst., as the steamer Pocahontas was descending the Arkansas river, when near Onslow Bend, about thirty-four miles from the lower mouth of the river, about five feet and six inches below the water level, the water-logged cargo, it appears that some sparks ignited the cargo of 2,400 bales cotton, which were stowed on the guards, and reached the hurricane deck, and in less than ten minutes the boat was completely enveloped in flames. It seems that excited on the alarm of fire being given, the passengers and crew, and the boat was abandoned, and the survivors were rescued from their beds, and the boat was to the mercy of the current. It was difficult or next to impossible to get an exit from the cabin and none of us was successful in this. The swollen river was the only chance for escape and twice passing the point of no return we were obliged to attempt to reach a safe landing. The first time the same boat that on her previous trip had collapsed a true, by which several lives were lost.

LOSS OF THE CAMDEN ON THE BRAZOS.—The steamer Camden, en route for Brazos about a snag about 15 miles below San Felipe, and sunk almost immediately. There were about 200 bales of cotton on board, most of which was saved. No lives were lost. The hull of the Camden is now injured, but when the river falls low will mark the way be raised again and repaired. New York Telegraph, 1884 meet.
